PASTOR'S DEVOTIONAL

"Teach me your way, O Lord, that I may walk in your truth" – Psalm 86:11.

During my school days at Stony Brook School, a bus would be waiting outside of the school to take my Roman Catholic classmates over to St. Joseph's Church after school for what they called "catechism classes." As one of the few Protestant kids in my neighbourhood, I assumed that "catechism" was something that only Roman Catholics studied (we had Sunday school, we didn't have to go to St. Peter's on a weekday afternoon). But when I entered Grade Seven, I discovered that Lutherans also have a catechism; along with generations of Lutheran young people, our Confirmation classes featured a study of Luther's Small Catechism, which is still the central text used by many Lutheran congregations in their Confirmation programs. While many other churches (including our Roman Catholic sisters and brothers) continue to use their catechisms in teaching, we cherish Luther's work for its simple yet profound answers to the most basic question for us: "What does this mean?"

During our "Lutherans: Past, Present and Future" adult study classes this past spring, several of our participants inquired about a class in the Small Catechism for adults. Many of us studied it during our Confirmation days, and still others who were not raised in the Lutheran Church have not been exposed to this important work. As a pastor who (you have probably noticed) quotes frequently from the Small Catechism in sermons, it is my delight to announce that I will be teaching a six week class on Luther's Small Catechism for Adults, which will begin on Monday, September 21 at 7:00 p.m. and continue through Monday, November 2 (we will not meet on Thanksgiving Day, October 12). In our first session, we will look into the background of the Small Catechism and what led Luther to write the document. We will then focus on the Catechism's three "chief parts": The Ten Commandments, the Creed, and the Lord's Prayer. Our later sessions will include a study of the Sacraments of Holy Baptism and Holy Communion, and we will conclude with considering how the Small Catechism continues to remain relevant in the Lutheran Church of the 21st Century.

So no matter if you memorized the Small Catechism (in its original German or in an English translation) during your Confirmation years, or if you studied another catechism in the church of your youth, or if you have no idea what a "catechism" is, come and join us as we discuss Luther's work and ask ourselves "what does this mean" for us as God's people today. I look forward to sharing this wonderful time of learning and discovery with you!

Yours in Christ,
Pastor Jeff Laustsen

P.S. – Our Thursday Noon Bible Study will resume on Thursday, October 1.

FRIENDSHIP MEAL

Zion will host the first of its Friendship Meals for 2015-2016 on Friday, September 25 at 5 PM. Friendship Meals are a ministry of Zion, where we invite people from around Stratford who are in need of a nourishing meal and fellowship.

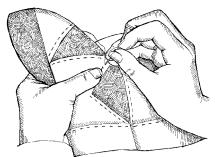

Friendship Meals are a serving arm of the church, where we carry out the ministry of loving service to/with our brothers and sisters. Hosting a Friendship Meal requires the time and skills of many people. Are you able to peel potatoes? Are you able to set tables and clear them after the guests eat? Are you able to wash dishes? Are you able to visit with our guests? Are you able to take food to a table? The tasks are all important for the serving of a meal.

Serving a Friendship Meal normally takes several hours. We begin work at 1 PM and finish up around 7 PM. What if you can't come for the whole time? You are invited to contribute whatever time you can to the meal.

If you would like to help with this ministry, please call Sister Jean Widmeyer or call her at 273-6810. Or you can show up on September 25. All assistance is appreciated.

COOKIES NEEDED

Cookies are needed for the Friendship Meal on Friday, September 25. The planning group is asking members of Zion to donate cookies. Each baker is asked to bake 2 dozen cookies. Please do not use nuts in the cookies because of allergy issues. A sign up sheet is at the back of the church. Please bring the cookies to the church by Friday afternoon. We will also pick up the cookies if transportation is an issue.

QUILTING GROUP

ZION QUILTERS

Another beloved group at Zion, affectionately known as the "Quilting Queens," are our quilters who meet on Wednesday mornings from 9 AM to 1:30 PM in our Parlour. Quilting, once a lost art, has become fashionable again. It is a craft enhancing the beauty in God's creation. Our quilting group always welcomes new members, be you experienced or a novice wanting to learn the art of quilting or doing tied quilts for CLWR and for local needs. If you can't stay all morning, not to worry. A couple of hours is just fine. Your presence is what is appreciated. Quilting begins on Wednesday, September 30. Please call Verlie Sippel at 519-271-9107 for information, or if you have a quilt you would like quilted.
