PASTOR'S DEVOTIONAL

"According to apostolic usage you are now to be entrusted with the office of Word and Sacrament in the one holy catholic Church by the laying on of hands and by prayer." – Ordination Service, Evangelical Lutheran Worship.

There are three days that hold a special meaning in my life that I celebrate every year:

- My birthday on March 11.
- Our wedding anniversary on January 7.
- My ordination anniversary on June 15.

As we prepare to host the Eastern Synod Ordination Service on Friday, June 2 (which will include the ordination of our former vicar Albert Romkema), I am also preparing to celebrate the 34th anniversary of the day when Bishop Herluf Jensen of the New Jersey Synod laid his hands on my head and ordained me as a pastor. I was privileged to celebrate my ordination in my home congregation, St. Peter's Lutheran Church in North Plainfield, New Jersey. It was the congregation that my family had called home since 1924, the church in which I was baptized, confirmed, and taught about the love of God that is ours in our Lord Jesus Christ. The congregation that had nurtured me in the faith now gathered around me as I was set apart to proclaim this same love of God in my role as an ordained minister of Word and Sacrament.

My ordination anniversary is a special day for me, but it is not one that is my exclusive possession. It is a day in which I reflect on God's call that I felt at an early age, that call that is still at the center of my work as a pastor. It is a day when I give thanks for my family, pastors, Sunday School teachers, university and seminary professors, mentors, and all of the people who have supported and guided me over the years. It is a day when I remember the great trust and responsibility that was placed upon my shoulders when the stole that I wear every Sunday was first placed upon my shoulders, which serves as a weekly reminder to me that my service as a pastor is for the purpose of sharing the good news of Jesus Christ, and never for my own sake. My ordination anniversary is a day of celebration, of reflection, and of praying that as God has blessed and guided me throughout these many years in which I have served as a pastor that God will continue to give me the strength and wisdom to continue to serve as a faithful pastor for as long as God wills.

It is a tremendous honor and privilege for a congregation to be asked to host an ordination service, and I would encourage all of you to attend this worship celebration. You will be inspired by the presence of our Bishop, Michael Pryse; by the music of our choir; by the words of the ordination service; and by the joy that each of the three ordinands will experience on this day. As June 15 will always be a special day for me, June 2 will become a day of celebration and remembrance for Hilla, Albert, and Ronnie. May we join in this celebration as we give thanks and praise to God for calling these new pastors to proclaim God's word "so that your church may be gathered for praise and strengthened for service."

Yours in Christ,
Pastor Jeff Laustsen

VICAR'S DEVOTIONAL

Brothers and Sisters of Zion Lutheran Church, Grace and Peace to you.

I thank you for your ministry of teaching, and I am grateful for the hospitality you have shown by welcoming our family into your community. My wife Cristina and I moved from Oakville to Kitchener in 2013 with our children Jackson (16), Bianca (9), and Daniel (6). We came with the primary intention of studying at the local universities. Cristina had hoped to prepare for a second career in the field of science, while I planned to explore my peculiar interest in Lutheran Theology. With time however, these interests evolved and grew in unexpected ways.

Prior to our move, Cristina had worked in the production department of a publishing firm which specialized in issues related to labour law in Canada. She later made the decision to stay home with our children until the youngest was old enough to attend junior kindergarten. During those same years, I worked in a variety of settings as a Registered Nurse. When we arrived in Waterloo Region, my initial intention was to work full-time at Cambridge Memorial Hospital (CMH) while taking the occasional course at Waterloo Lutheran Seminary (WLS) as a part-time interest. That interest however, quickly grew into a passion, which eventually sounded into a calling. So, in 2015 I left my full-time position at CMH and enrolled in the Master of Divinity program at WLS. Cristina is also currently a full-time student, enrolled in the Bachelor of Education program at Wilfrid Laurier University. We both anticipate graduating in the Spring of 2018.

Since the time of our arrival in Kitchener, our home congregation has been St. Matthew's Evangelical Lutheran Church. Though we have been active in a variety of church ministries, we both share a common interest in learning ministries; endeavouring to nurture Christian faith, identity, and community. As we enter this next stage of our journey together, we give thanks to God for the invitation to walk with you; to grow with you; and to be with you in Christ.

Your co-worker in the Gospel,
Jason Ashby

COUNCIL HIGHLIGHTS

At our May Congregational Council meeting we welcomed our new intern, Vicar Jason Ashby, and look forward to working with him during his term with us.

Following the direction received from the Congregation at the Special Congregational meeting held on May 7, 2017, quotes are being received for the two grease interceptors and the fire suppression system for the kitchen. The work will be completed as soon as possible. Some donations towards the project have already been received and more will be required to meet the $11,000.00 commitment that is required from personal donations and fundraising.

Congregational Council has obtained three quotes for completion of drainage work related to improving water drainage from the driveway and improving water drainage away from the wall in the front courtyard area. The quotes were reviewed by the Property Committee and Congregational Council. The quotes from Mike Holman have been accepted and the work in those two areas will be done as soon as possible this summer. Funds for these two maintenance projects are available from the building reserve fund.

A request has been received from the Accessibility Advisory Committee regarding the installation of an automated lift. Congregational Council discussed the request and are reviewing what procedures might be necessary to proceed.
